Foreword

By Chairman, Alan Sugar

With Euro '96 still going on all around me as I write this Foreword, it certainly seems that the football season never ends!

Yet I've just seen the fixtures for our domestic 1996-97 season and, like everybody else at White Hart Lane, I just can't wait to get started again!

Our seasons are long and hard affairs but the highs always amply compensate for the lows and I've got a feeling that we'll be enjoying many more of the former in the campaign to come.

Gerry Francis certainly had the side playing in a highly-successful mode last season, despite literally having to re-build the team for a second time after the disappointing departure of some key personnel at this same stage last year.

Now, if he can triumph in his pursuit of more high calibre performers this summer, then I am confident that next year's challenge can be even more sustained.

The problem at the moment is that transfer fees are sky high and will continue to spiral unless some clubs stand back and take realistic stock of where it's all going. True, football is an emotional game where the heart rules the head in so many areas, but clubs have to be run realistically and, as in everyday life, you can't spend more than you earn.

We naturally want the best for Tottenham but refuse to become involved in the many international auctions being staged these days. Thankfully, Gerry has a deserved reputation for spotting and polishing 'rough diamonds' into Premiership 'jewels' but, having said that, we will never be afraid of investing in players when the situation - and the player - is right.

I am delighted that we continue to produce so many of our own home-grown players as we welcome another five teenagers to our professional ranks from last year's Youth team. These young players represent our future and it's particularly special for everybody at the club to see them progress and make it to the first team.

Congratulations to our Youth players on winning the South East Counties League Cup last season and to our Reserves for going so close in the Football Combination. Their successes mean a great deal to this club and the involvement of Sol Campbell and Ian Walker in the recent European Championships should act as a beacon of encouragement to them all.

In fact, congratulations to all our players who brought further honour to themselves and to the club by gaining international recognition throughout the year. Teddy Sheringham, Darren Anderton and Colin Calderwood all earned great credit during Euro '96 while Chris Day and Steve Slade represented England Under-21 in the Toulon Tournament.

Gerry McMahon continues to blossom with Northern Ireland and Ronny Rosenthal was again a regular with Israel throughout the year.

There were many others at Under-21, Youth and Schoolboy levels throughout the home countries during the year and I salute them all.

In addition, with all international minds now turning to the World Cup, I am certain that there will be others at White Hart Lane making the breakthrough before too long.

On the first team front, we were disappointed with our ultimate Premiership finish after being so well placed in the European chase during most of the season. And we had to work so long and hard to even get there after UEFA's over-reaction in banning us from their competitions following the debacle of the InterToto competition.

It could only happen in football! We prudently obtained written agreements from the F.A., the Premier League and UEFA to participate under certain specific conditions and then we had to go to Appeal to show UEFA that we were only doing what they had already agreed to!

Thankfully common sense prevailed and the Appeals Tribunal accepted our case for re-instatement and UEFA congratulated us on the thorough and professional case we presented.

Naturally, after that hollow but crucial victory, we were all hoping that we would improve on the previous season and actually reach the F.A. Cup Final so losing to Nottingham Forest on penalties after extra time in a replay was a real blow.

Still, it was one that we quickly recovered from and all credit to the players for picking themselves up again and staying in UEFA Cup contention right up until the final whistle in our last game of the season. Unfortunately, results elsewhere decided our fate.

Since my last Handbook notes, we have welcomed new players and inevitably said farewell to others.

Ruel Fox moved south from Newcastle United in October and Andy Sinton joined us in January from Sheffield Wednesday. Like Chris Armstrong and Clive Wilson, both performed well in their first term with us and will be even better next season having settled in so well.

Romanian international Ilie Dumitrescu finally moved to West Ham United in March after a battle to renew his work permit, Darren Caskey left for Reading and Owen Coll for Bournemouth. Since the end of the season Erik Thorstvedt, Kevin Watson, Gareth Knott and Robert Simpson have all been released.

In thanking them all for their past service, we wish them well in their future careers.

Towards the end of last season it was clear that our pitch was simply not good enough to match our ambition so we have spent the summer completely renovating it to ensure a superb playing surface. We have also taken the opportunity of completely replacing the old undersoil heating system with a new one, and installed a new drainage system throughout.

This work was partly funded by our successful and highly-encouraging Rights Issue in April which raised £10.9 million and will also help us redevelop the North Stand and complete the hospitality areas in the South Stand.

It is most encouraging that the City now regard Tottenham Hotspur as a very well run organisation and one that is worth investing in. Such confidence is very gratifying, coming as it does just a few short years after our great Club almost 'went to the wall.'

We also have a new training centre, Spurs Lodge in Chigwell. This splendid 24 acre site was purchased over a year ago and we have spent the intervening months in the midst of a major works project on the site that now gives us a purpose-built pavilion and five fully irrigated full-size pitches.

Throughout the club, both on and off the pitch, we are one team, with one objective - to succeed. So let's go for it together.

Have a great season.

Congratulations to our six players who were involved in the European Championship Finals this summer.

Teddy Sheringham, Darren Anderton, Sol Campbell and Ian Walker were all in the England squad that narrowly lost on penalties in the semi-final to Germany, while Colin Calderwood represented Scotland and new signing Allan Nielsen played for Denmark.

Sheringham's two goals against Holland helped England to a 4-1 victory in their third group match, as he was an ever-present for the tournament. He also scored from the penalty spot in the shoot-out against Germany before the deciding, and ultimately disappointing, 'sudden death' stage.

Darren Anderton on the attack during England's quarter-final against Spain.

Anderton and Calderwood played every game for their respective countries, Nielsen scored in his only appearance for the Danes, in their concluding 3-0 group victory over Turkey, Campbell made one substitute appearance for England against Calderwood's Scotland and Walker was a valuable squad member although unable to add to his one senior cap.

Teddy Sheringham is chased by Germany's Matthias Sammer during the semi-final at Wembley.

Colin Calderwood in action for Scotland against Holland.

First Team

We lost fewer away games than any of our Premiership rivals, and only Champions Manchester United gained more points on their travels. We equalled our club record of just four away defeats, previously achieved in 1919-20, 1960-61, 1970-71 and 1984-85.

The total of just 19 away goals conceded stands equal second in our League history, level with the 1947-48 Second Division campaign and only bettered by the 14 goals conceded during 1970-71.

Our tally of 29 away points, gained from 19 games, was our best since 1984-85 when 41 were amassed from 21 matches on opponent's grounds.

We lost fewer games in total, nine, than in any top flight campaign since 1970-71 (nine also). The total of 38 goals conceded was our second lowest ever in the top flight, only the 1970-71 campaign, in the old First Division, saw a lower figure (33).

BSkyB screened eight of our Premiership matches live, the highest number since regular live TV games were introduced in 1983. Our previous high of League games featured was six during 1993-94.

Liverpool were the only team to beat us by more than a single goal during the Premiership campaign, a 3-1 win on August 26. The last time we had such a record was during 1972-73 when their Merseyside neighbours Everton beat us by a similar scoreline. Each of our 12 other defeats that season, and eight in 1995-96, were by a single goal margin.

The 4-1 win over Manchester United on New Year's Day was our best ever scoreline at White Hart Lane over the eventual Champions. Our only recent success on the ground of the Champions was at Everton on the opening day of the 1984-85 campaign, winning 4-1.

We have to go back to 1933-34 – a 3-1 win at Arsenal – for our previous away success. In all, we can claim 16 home and four away wins against the eventual Champions.

With both of the penalties awarded, and successfully converted, coming on opponent's grounds, it was only the fourth of 50 post war seasons that no penalty kicks had been scored, in our favour, during a home League campaign. The previous occasions were 1985-86, 1969-70 and 1948-49. The latter is the only campaign of the last 50 when our tally of League goals did not include a successful spot kick.

Towards the end of the season we fielded an all-English born team on three occasions; at Manchester United and Leeds United and at home to Coventry City. Our previous all Anglo-Saxon side was at Middlesbrough on April 20, 1993.

Our tally of all-English teams now stands at 86 in 3,188 Premiership/Football League matches, since gaining election to the League in 1908.

We went undefeated away from home in the League before Christmas for the first time ever in the top flight. The only previous occasion was in the old Second Division during 1949-50 when Leeds United inflicted our first away defeat in January, 1950.

Our run of 10 away matches without defeat, from August 18 to December 26, stands equal third in our list of away sequences, only bettered by 16 matches from November, 1984 to August, 1995 and 14 games between April and December, 1949.

A new club record for not conceding a League goal was created when, between October 18 and December 23, our goal was not breached for a total of 10 hours two minutes. This exceeded the previous record of 576 minutes set between January 4 and March 25, 1987.

Reserve Team

Chris Hughton's side finished as runners-up in the Avon Insurance Football Combination despite amassing a dozen points more than when they carried off the title during 1994-95.

We had the best defensive record – 33 goals against – and the best goal difference (+47) of any club. It was the 18th time that we had gained second place in the competition.

The unbeaten sequence from 1994-95 was stretched to 20 matches during August, our best run since one of 22 Combination games between August and December, 1978.

A sequence of 11 consecutive victories was achieved from October 9 to January 3, our best in the competition since an 18 match run from August to November, 1978.

Youth Team

Our senior youth team won the South East Counties League Cup outright for the sixth time, plus one as joint holders, by beating Oxford United 2-1 in a single match final at the Manor Ground.

Des Bulpin's side also finished second in the South East Counties League Division One, with the best goalscoring record (88 goals for) and best goal difference (+51) of any club. It was our fifth time as runners-up. We have held a position in the top two in each of the last 11 seasons.

Junior Team

Bobby Arber's Junior side finished in eighth position in Division Two.

Gerry Francis

Took over as manager at White Hart Lane in November, 1994, having previously managed London neighbours Queens Park Rangers.

Born in Chiswick, he started his career as an apprentice at Loftus Road in 1968, and signed professional forms in June, 1969. A midfielder, he made 352 League and Cup appearances in two spells with Rangers, scoring 65 goals.

He joined Crystal Palace, in July, 1979, and netted nine goals in 66 League and Cup matches for the Eagles, before his return to Loftus Road in February, 1981.

The following year he transferred to Coventry City, where he scored twice in 54 League and Cup matches, and in July, 1983, he spent 10 months with Exeter City as player/manager. He scored three goals in 31 League and Cup games.

Non-contract spells with Cardiff City (seven League appearances), Swansea City (seven League games), Portsmouth (five League matches) and Bristol Rovers (one goal in 39 League and Cup outings) followed, before he played for Wimbledon and later joined their coaching staff.

Appointed manager/associate director at Bristol Rovers, in July, 1987, he moved back to QPR as manager in June, 1991.

He was honoured by England on 12 occasions for the full team, eight as captain in 1975-76, scoring three goals. He was also capped six times for the Under-23s, and captained that side between 1973-75.

Other honours as a player included promotion to Division One 1972-73 and runners-up League Championship 1976. He won BBC TV Goal of the Season in 1975 and 1976, Evening Standard Footballer of the Month in August, 1975, Match Weekly Matchman of the Month in March, 1983, Sports Personality of the West winner 1990, Evening Standard five-a-side winner 1971, 1972, runner-up 1976 and World Spectacular five-a-side winner 1971.

As a manager his side won the Third Division Championship, finished runners-up in the Leyland Daf Cup and he was named Barclays Division Three Manager of the Year, all in 1990. He was also voted Manager of the Month in March, 1988, March, 1990, March, 1992 and December, 1994.

Roger Cross

Moved with Gerry Francis from Queens Park Rangers in November, 1994, to join our coaching staff as Assistant Manager.

Born in East Ham, he began his career as an apprentice with his local side West Ham United and signed full professional forms for the Hammers in July, 1964.

A striker, he scored once in seven League appearances for West Ham, before transferring to Brentford in March, 1970, via a loan period with Orient in October, 1968.

He made a total of 62 League appearances for the Griffin Park club, scoring 18 goals, before moving on to Fulham in September, 1971. Rejoined the Bees in December, 1972, and played a further 145 League matches, scoring 52 times, until leaving for Millwall in January, 1977.

Sustained a bad injury during his spell at Millwall and, from the age of 28, was limited to just 20 League games. Scored a total of 92 League and Cup goals during his career.

In the summer of 1977 he moved to the United States and played eight NASL games for the Seattle Sounders. Two years later he returned to England when he was appointed Youth and Reserve Team Manager at The Den. Took over as Reserve Team Manager at Queens Park Rangers in 1989.

Season 1995-96 was one of consistency and promise as we opened the campaign with a powerful challenge and ultimately just failed in our bid for a European place. There was much to enjoy - and to encourage optimism for the season ahead.

F.A. CARLING PREMIERSHIP

August

The summer departures of Jürgen Klinsmann and Nick Barmby understandably upset our pre-season planning and we then endured the added misfortune of losing Darren Anderton who had to undergo a hernia operation.

And although record £4.5 million signing Chris Armstrong arrived from Crystal Palace, injuries continued to disrupt our preparations as we headed for Maine Road and our opening game of the new campaign against Manchester City.

Indeed, Teddy Sheringham and Armstrong had played just 25 minutes together before the real business got underway but Sheringham was on target in our 1-1 draw with City.

In doing so, Teddy extended his record of scoring his club's first goal for the last four seasons, including his final year at Nottingham Forest.

Aston Villa looked in fine fettle when they arrived for our first game at White Hart Lane in midweek but we competed well until defender Ugo Ehiogu's header decided the match in their favour.

Liverpool arrived three days later and looked in Championship-winning form. They won 3-1 with John Barnes scoring twice and Robbie Fowler adding a third before a late Barnes own goal gave us some consolation.

Clive Wilson, snapped up from Queens Park Rangers on a free transfer but another player injured in pre-season, made his debut in that game.

With just one point from our first three games we were already being tipped for relegation by the media and so our fixture at West Ham United took on added significance.

kick but Anderton made a welcome second half return as substitute to help inspire our fightback. Ronny Rosenthal equalised on 55 minutes.

SEPTEMBER

We started to push our way up the table with a 2-1 home win over Leeds United. The men from Elland Road were showing excellent form at the time but goals from David Howells and Sheringham lifted our spirits and performance. Tony Yeboah replied for United.

A brace of goals from Sheringham, and a Des Walker own goal, saw us beat Sheffield Wednesday 3-1 at Hillsborough after David Hirst had given the home side an eighth minute lead.

Armstrong then scored his first goals for the club as we beat Fourth Division Chester City 4-0 in the first leg of our Coca Cola Cup second round tie. His two successful strikes were followed by goals from Sheringham and Rosenthal for a comprehensive win.

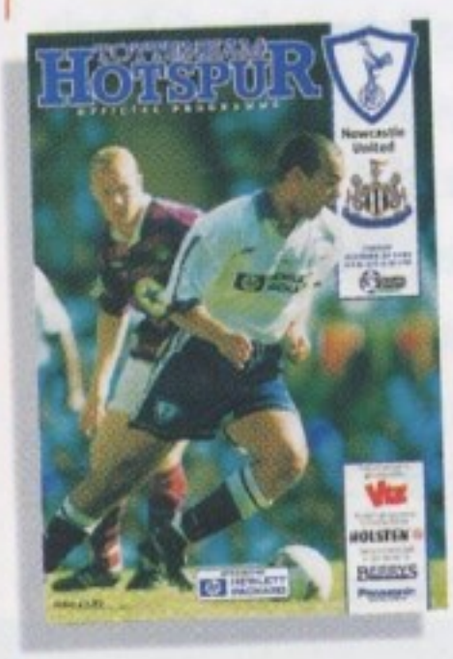
We showed steel and commitment at QPR, coming back from a two goal deficit to win 3-2 with Sheringham (2) and Jason Dozzell on target.

Sadly Anderton was forced out of the action with a torn groin and would not be back again for almost another seven months.

Our home game against Wimbledon illustrated the growing potency of the Sheringham-Armstrong partnership.

They combined for both of Sheringham's goals, while pressure from Chris forced Gary Elkins to head into his own net.

OCTOBER



We travelled to the Deva Stadium for our Coca Cola Cup return where Chester took an early lead through veteran striker Cyrille Regis. However, two more goals from Sheringham and a single from Howells saw us comfortably through.

Sheringham thus completed an impressive run of 10 goals in six games and took his season's total to 11. That sequence included six wins but his former club Nottingham Forest broke the run at White Hart Lane when Steve Stone's attempted cross beat Ian Walker for the only goal of the game.

Winger Ruel Fox made his debut following his move from Newcastle.

Armstrong claimed his first League goal in the subsequent 1-1 draw at Everton.

Then Coventry City knocked us out of the Coca Cola Cup, recovering from a 2-0 interval deficit to win 3-2 at Highfield Road. Armstrong plus an own goal had seemingly seen us through but it subsequently all went wrong for us on an evening to forget.

High-flying Newcastle United were the next opponents and a thrilling game finished 1-1. Armstrong headed us in front after 20 minutes but the visitors equalised immediately after the break through David Ginola.

NOVEMBER

Back to Highfield Road, this time in the Premiership, and we avenged our cup exit with a 3-2 win over Coventry. Fox, Sheringham and Howells were our scorers.

Arsenal were next at White Hart Lane and they took the lead through Dennis Bergkamp. Sheringham headed us level and Armstrong hit the winner. It was the first League game in which both Sheringham and Armstrong scored as their partnership blossomed.

We became the first team of the season to beat Middlesbrough at their new Riverside Stadium where Armstrong hit the decisive goal.

We subsequently drew 0-0 at Chelsea to maintain our momentum and climb up the table.

Unusual celebrations at Highfield Road, following Teddy Sheringham's goal against Coventry City.

DECEMBER

Another goalless draw - at home to Everton - followed before a single Sheringham strike was enough to secure victory at home to QPR.

Wimbledon were then defeated 1-0 at Selhurst Park with Fox grabbing the crucial winning goal.

We faced newly-promoted Bolton Wanderers at home just before Christmas with the chance of going second in the Premiership and looked set for victory when Sheringham and Armstrong put us two goals ahead by the 64th minute.

But, with 15 minutes remaining, Scott Green pulled one back and our former Icelandic international defender Gudni Bergsson equalised.

With Southampton and ourselves both stricken by injuries, we continued with a jaded looking 0-0 draw at The Dell. We then lost the Premiership's only remaining unbeaten away record at Ewood Park where Blackburn Rovers beat us 2-1. Sheringham was our second-half scorer as the year came to a close on a disappointing note.

JANUARY

However, we hit peak form against eventual-Champions Manchester United at White Hart Lane on New Year's Day. Both sides had injury problems but we looked inspired as United were comprehensively defeated 4-1.

Armstrong set up Sheringham for our first and, although Andy Cole quickly equalised, Sol Campbell shot us ahead again on the stroke of half-time. United goalkeeper Peter Schmeichel was then replaced by Kevin Pilkington but, within minutes of the second half starting, we increased our lead through Armstrong who also headed our fourth in the 65th minute.

Looking back on the season, United manager Alex Ferguson later admitted that the defeat proved the inspiration for an incredible run that subsequently saw the Reds snatch the Premiership title from Newcastle.

The following Saturday saw us in F.A. Cup third round action against Third Division Hereford United at Edgar Street. A battling home side held us to a 1-1 draw with Rosenthal heading us ahead and United missing a penalty before John Brough grabbed their equaliser on 63 minutes.

Back in the League, Armstrong headed the only goal of the game with Manchester City at White Hart Lane.

Sheringham hit a hat-trick and Armstrong grabbed another two as Hereford were defeated 5-1 in our F.A. Cup replay.

Fox hit the target against Villa in our 'live' Sky TV game at Villa Park but the home side took the points with a 2-1 win.

We had a major boost on the eve of our home F.A. Cup fourth round tie with Wolverhampton Wanderers when Chairman Alan Sugar successfully led our appeal against UEFA's European ban.

UEFA had banned us for a season from

Euro competition, to be activated when we next qualified over a five year period, for fielding weakened sides in the previous summer's Intertoto Cup but, having proved that we had the permission of the F.A., Premier League and also UEFA itself, the ban was duly lifted and replaced with a fine which was shared between the Premier League clubs.

Victory over Wolves looked likely when Wilson gave us a 12th minute lead but a defensive error allowed Don Goodman to equalise and force a replay.

Andy Sinton leads our attack at home to Southampton. (SPORTSHOT)

FEBRUARY

Walker and David James were both in outstanding form when we travelled to Anfield to face Liverpool. Their goalkeeping kept the score at 0-0 although we dominated for much of the game.

We also outplayed Wolves in our fourth round F.A. Cup replay at Molineux where we won 2-0 and should have scored more. Rosenthal and Sheringham were our marksmen.

Back in the League, we suffered the disappointment of losing at home to West Ham when on-loan Portuguese international Dani scored the only goal in the fifth minute. Andy Sinton, signed from Wednesday, made his debut as substitute.

Our scheduled F.A. Cup fifth round match at Forest was abandoned after 14 minutes as snow enveloped the City Ground.

We returned home to beat Wednesday 1-0 in a game that we dominated yet could only produce a single goal from Armstrong.

Back to the City Ground where two spectacular and memorable free-kicks by Ian Woan, and a double reply from Armstrong, saw us draw 2-2 with Forest.

MARCH

At home we then beat Southampton with a single goal from Dozzell. Young striker Steve Slade made his full debut.

Ilie Dumitrescu's protracted move to West Ham finally went through after a delayed renewel of his work permit. With Gica Popescu having joined Barcelona in the summer, it was the end of our brief Romanian connection.

The Forest saga continued at White Hart Lane a week later with the unusual occurrence of a replay on a Saturday afternoon.

Bryan Roy and Sheringham, with a superb free-kick, saw the game tied at 1-1 after 90 minutes and it stayed that way throughout extra time. We lost the subsequent penalty 'shoot-out' 3-1 with only Fox beating in-form Forest 'keeper Mark Crossley who made excellent saves to deny Wilson, Rosenthal and Sheringham.

An injury-time winner from hat-trick man Alan Shearer saw Blackburn defeat us 3-2 at home. Sheringham and Armstrong scored for us.

We then beat Bolton by the same scoreline at Burnden Park where Howells, Fox and Armstrong were on target before replies from Alan Stubbs and Scott Sellars again gave Wanderers hope of a point.

A late Eric Cantona goal gave Manchester United victory at Old Trafford on the following Sunday.

We hit back to beat Coventry 3-1 at home, Fox scoring twice after Sheringham had equalised.

April

Back to Forest where they completed the hat-trick of League and Cup wins over us with a 2-1 victory. Armstrong replied for us.

Another disappointment came in the 1-1 home draw with Middlesbrough. Armstrong's late header appeared to be enough for victory but within seconds Phil Whelan scrambled the ball over our line to earn Boro a point.

As we battled for the last UEFA Cup place available, Arsenal were our main rivals so our game at Highbury was crucial and ended goalless. But we had the bonus of Anderton's long-awaited return to action.

Another London derby, this time at home to Chelsea, saw Armstrong cancel out a Mark Hughes opener to earn us a point. Europe was beginning to slip away.

MAY

Anderton announced his return to full fitness with a brace of goals as we completed the 'double' over Leeds with a 3-1 win at Elland Road. Armstrong had earlier equalised after United took a 13th minute lead before Sheringham set up both Anderton strikes.

We went into the last game of the season still with a chance of UEFA Cup qualification. But Arsenal had to drop points at home to relegated Bolton while we had to beat Newcastle at St. James' Park where the home side needed to win in the hope that Manchester United lost at Middlesbrough !

The subsequent 1-1 draw helped neither side as both Manchester United and Arsenal won. Yet it had looked promising for us when Dozzell gave us the lead as Arsenal trailed !

We concluded the season in eighth place, three points short of European qualification with 61 and level on points with Everton and Blackburn immediately above us. But we finished with a huge endorsement from Magpies manager Kevin Keegan.

As Keegan summed up: "Spurs have the makings of a great side."

Let us hope that we prove him right in season 1996-1997 !

By Chris Hughton

"After a poor start to the campaign, when we only picked up two points out of a possible nine, we turned that into some excellent form losing just one game - away to Chelsea - in the next 16 matches.

"A fairly consistent and solid side, with few changes to personnel, saw Paul Mahorn, Steve Slade, Kevin Watson and particularly Darren Caskey playing regularly and putting in some good performances.

"We continued to improve game by game until we put ourselves in the position where, at one stage, we were seven points clear at the top of the table and sometimes 10 points in front.

"We came unstuck when we played Queens Park Rangers, at St. Albans in March. At the time we were seven points clear, they were the second placed team and we lost 1-2.

"In the period of a week, not only did we lose that match to the eventual Champions, which was the proverbial six-pointer, we then lost 1-0 at home to Swindon Town.

"The disappointing factor about the Swindon game was that three weeks earlier it had been abandoned after 20 minutes because of snow, when we were 2-0 ahead!

"The week after that defeat by Swindon, we played a very strong Chelsea outfit, probably almost as powerful a Reserve team as I can remember seeing, and our young side earned a very good draw.

However, during that time, QPR were still winning games and turned things around.

"We then picked ourselves up, winning the next four matches, until we travelled to Bristol Rovers, for a game that we would generally be expected to win - and lost 1-2.

"In the run-in, we drew at home to West Ham and, although there was still a slight chance of winning the title, we suffered a very disappointing defeat at Watford.

"All credit to Rangers, they put together a similar run to ourselves when they went 16 or 17 games unbeaten at the end of the season. Congratulations to them on winning the Championship.

"Notable changes to the side during the season included losing Darren Caskey to either our first team, or when he finally left for Reading. Darren was and has been a very good Reserve team player and was somebody who was always going to score goals.

"Steve Slade's emergence into the first team also left us without another goalscorer, although he still ended the term as our top marksman with 16 goals in 21 starts.

"If there was one area during some of the games that we lost and which needed improving, then it was the need to score more goals.

"That sounds obvious, but the chances were still created and it was just that we didn't put them away.

"We either had to have one individual who scored a lot more goals or have more goals spread around the team a little bit. That was a slight disappointment.

"However, I was pleased with the way we defended very well as a team and, as had happened the previous term, we didn't concede too many goals, just 33 which was 10 less than QPR.

"At certain times during the campaign, we had a lot of players fit and very few injuries. As a result, some of the first and second year professionals struggled to get regular games and, in turn, match fitness.

"Sometimes when you are not getting too many competitive games and are suddenly thrust into the Reserves, for what are regarded as important matches, it is harder to adjust.

"Certainly the second year professionals will have benefitted from that experience. They have the knowledge of playing in a few reserve team games - although we wish it had been more - and we are hoping that the coming season will be their opportunity.

"We played some good quality Under-21 friendlies too, although not on a regular basis, so we will also be looking for some of those players to start pushing through this term.

"The big plus from the season was, of course, Steve Slade breaking into the first team squad and making his senior debut. Hopefully this term the likes of Danny Hill, Steve Carr, Chris Day, Andy Turner, Paul Mahorn and Jamie Clapham will progress a little more.

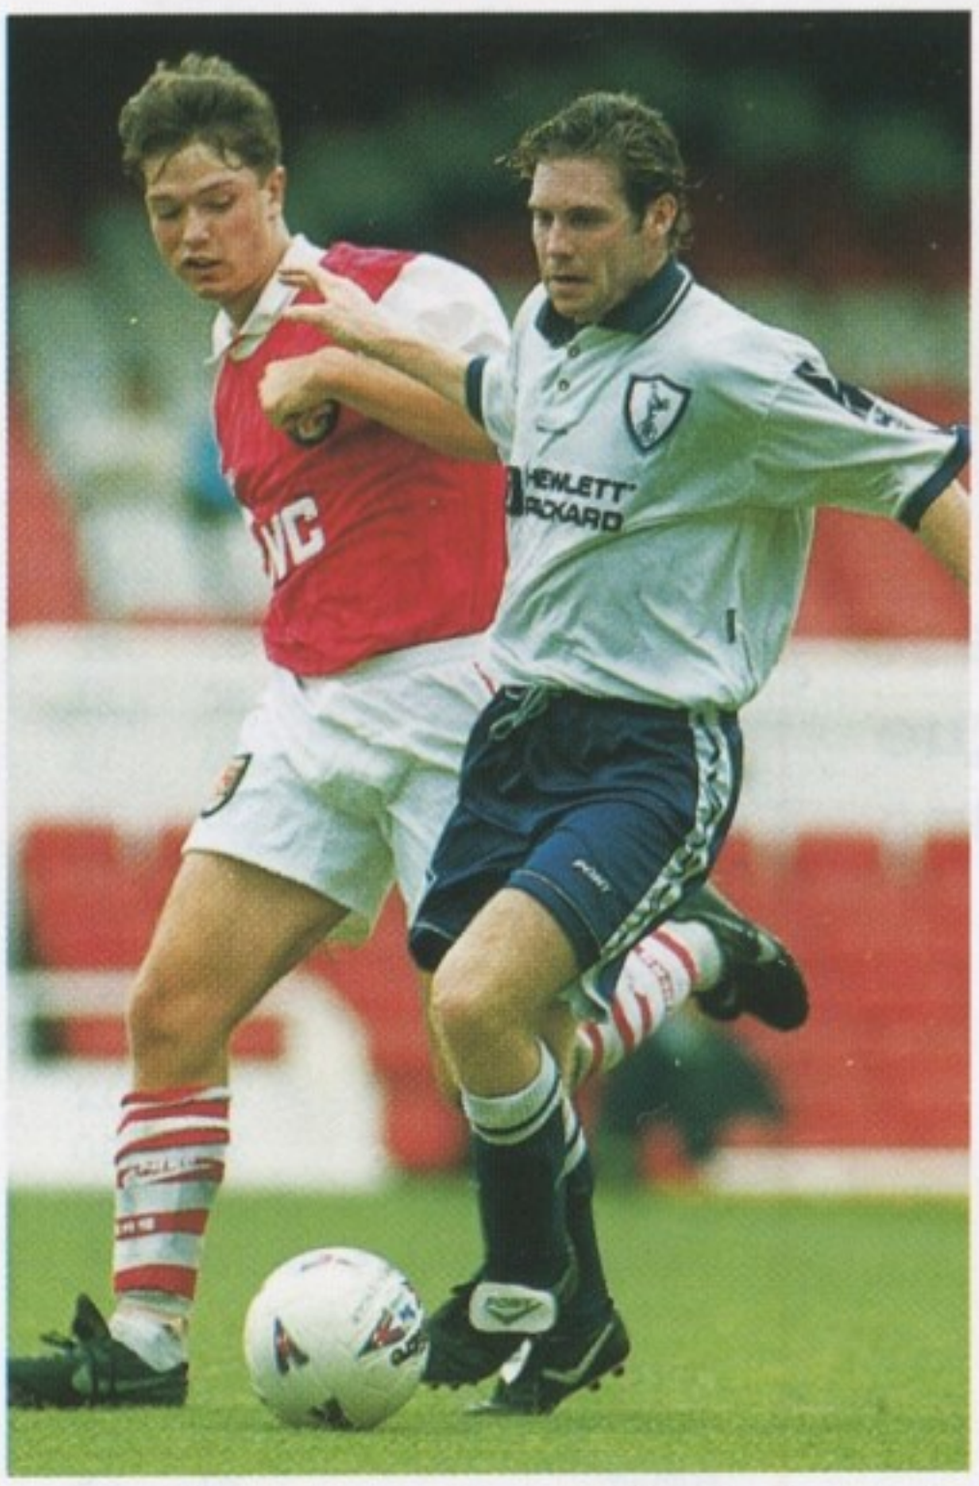
"Jamie, in particular, played a lot of Reserve games, 32 in total, and had a good year, we will certainly be looking for him to push on next season.

"I enjoyed my second year as Reserve Team Manager and certainly couldn't fault the commitment of anybody. The application from all the players was first class.

"I was very disappointed to lose Owen Coll during the season and Kevin Watson, in particular, who has played at Reserve team level for the past few years and has been a smashing lad in that group. I wish him all the best wherever he goes.

"Good luck also to Gareth Knott and Robert Simpson, who didn't play so many games for me, but also left the squad.

"It goes without saying that as a Reserve team you are, of course, going to be reliant on first team squad players who, for whatever reason, are not playing in the first team or are returning from injury.



Danny Hill in Reserve Team action during our 1-0 Combination victory over Arsenal at Highbury, in September.

"Again, I certainly could not fault their application and commitment and in particular the help they gave to some of the younger players.

"David Kerslake and Jason Cundy played a lot of games, and we also had Justin Edinburgh, Stuart Nethercott, Kevin Scott - who unfortunately was injured for a lot of the season - and Erik Thorstvedt in that group.

"Thanks also to Alex Nairn, the kit man, and physio Ally Beattie, as well as Len Houchin, who attends most of the games home and away, for all their help.

"Changes to the competition next term, to ensure fewer games, has seen Division Two disbanded with Bournemouth, Cardiff and Swansea promoted to make a single division of 23 clubs. The teams will only play each other once and then an optional cup competition will also be available.

"We are looking forward to the coming season."

By Des Bulpin

"Having been so successful last season, winning the League and getting to the final of the F.A. Youth Cup, I thought this year would be difficult and that certainly proved to be the case.

"I was very disappointed with the amount of injuries we had throughout the campaign but, unfortunately, that is something that you cannot plan for.

"We got off to a good start at Cambridge, beating them 7-0, and followed that up with an excellent 2-1 win at home to Arsenal. However, we subsequently lost 4-1 to our 'bogey' side Charlton and from then on the season was very much up and down. I felt that we played well throughout the term but failed to achieve and maintain any real consistency.

"One disappointment was losing 3-2 to eventual Champions West Ham, in what was a real title decider. I felt we did enough to deserve a draw there, but we had also lost the previous game 3-2 at home to Cambridge which finished any chance of winning the League.

"Obviously I wasn't at all happy with that Cambridge result, having already beaten them away so comprehensively. I remember saying to the boys that they must not give away any free-kicks, because they are a big side, and all three of their goals came from free-kicks! What made it worse was that we had totally out-played them.

"I was also very disappointed with the F.A. Youth Cup result, in which we went out at the first hurdle away to Plymouth. I felt that, if we had won that game we could have possibly gone on to the final.

"Unfortunately, we were dogged with injuries all year. Mark Gower, Mark Janney, Ross Darcy and Rory Allen were all out at various stages and you cannot afford to lose players of that calibre.

"However, some of the younger first year boys who came in did exceptionally well which was very encouraging. Hopefully they will be even stronger this coming year.

"I was obviously delighted to win the League Cup against Oxford. It was a great day for the boys and they deserved it. Glenn Southgate, in particular, did well as he broke his nose during the game and played through to the end.

"It was a difficult game because Oxford have a good youth policy, have been successful in their League and also won the Southern Junior Floodlit Cup last term. It was very satisfying to beat them and get some silverware.

"Congratulations to the five lads Gerry Francis took on as professionals this summer. Hopefully Rory Allen, Mark Arber, Darren Davies, Mark Janney and Paul McVeigh will push on with Chris Hughton next season.

"Of the first year lads, Luke Young did exceptionally well for me, as did Shane Samways, James Evans and goalkeeper Alan Marriott who played half the season. I was very pleased with all those players. There were also other players who didn't actually break into my side but did well for Bobby Arber throughout the season.

"I do feel that maybe next year we will not be as prolific up front as last term, or in fact as the year before. However, with Darren Davies staying on, as well as Young, Samways and Southgate coming through, I think our back four will be our strength.

"In closing, I would like to thank Ron Henry, who helped me throughout the year, never let me down and did an excellent job.

"Thanks also to Bobby for his assistance, Pat Jennings who worked with the goalkeepers, John Moncur for bringing the players in, all the physios at the club, as well as Martina Leonard and all the girls in the offices who have been a different class arranging everything behind the scenes.

"Lastly, but by no means least, to our little band of supporters who come with us every week. When we travelled to West Ham, for example, there were 2,000 people there but we had our little group of 60 fans and I would like to thank them all.

"Hopefully we will be successful next season, not only with the first team but right the way through the club."

By Bob Arber

"I was delighted with the performances of the Division Two side last term. After some difficult early season matches, where at best we were up and down, we settled well to achieve some excellent results.

"Our organisation was good and we became tough to beat. Getting points from Crystal Palace, Wimbledon and Southampton is always pleasing as these teams are the equal of any in Division One, with Palace and Wimbledon both reaching the semi-finals of the F.A. Youth Cup.

"Having managed this with so many Schoolboys in the side gave me a lot of personal satisfaction.

"In defence, Glenn Southgate, Lee Kersey, Luke Young and Shane Samways were solid and dependable. In midfield, James Evans produced some exciting stuff, eventually forcing his way into the senior side, and up front Julian Delicata looked promising.

"We had a lot of injuries to our first year YTS boys last term so the bulk of the side was made up of our Under-16 Schoolboys, who I coach on a Tuesday and Thursday evening. This put a heavy work load on these kids but they responded brilliantly.

Bobby with Bill Nicholson, Pat Jennings (Goalkeeping Coach) and Youth Development Officer, John Moncur.

"Stephen Dobson, who I converted from centre-forward to right-back, David Lee, Wayne Vaughan and James Dormer were the pick of the bunch.

"Others such as Luke Bauckham, John Piercy, Chris Marshall, Daren Twidell, Gavin Stone, Jamie Sinclair, Ian Hillier and Kevin O'Brien gave enough good performances to feel confident for the coming season. All these players have now joined the club as first year Trainees.

"We eventually finished the season in eighth position, with 31 points, which was a tremendous performance by the team. That was obviously very pleasing but not, I feel, the real job of the Youth Team Coach.

"Results are great to get at the time, but the real achievement is producing players with good habits and technique, as well as a desire to win, who eventually go on to play in our first team alongside the likes of Sol Campbell and Ian Walker. If not, to move on and play in other club sides like Nick Barmby, Darren Caskey and Steve Slade.

"Of the older second year boys, I feel that in players such as Rory Allen, Stephen Clemence, Mark Arber, Ross Darcy and Simon Webb we hopefully have players of that standard and I wish them luck in their professional careers with the club.

"Finally, I would like to thank Des Bulpin, John Moncur, Robbie Stepney, Terry Agambar, Irene Atkins, Colin Reid, Dick Moss, Jimmy Neighbour and Johnny Martin for their help during the season.

"A special thank you to John Lee, Stanley White and Peter Pope, who work with me on a Saturday morning and do a great job for the club."

Youth Team captain and defender Ross Darcy has been named 'Young Player of the Year' by the club and receives the Sidney Wale Challenge Cup.

Ross becomes the third Republic of Ireland Youth international in three years to win the prestigious trophy, following fellow countrymen Steve Carr and Kevin Maher.

"It is a great honour to win the award and a tremendous confidence booster for me for the coming season. It really tops off my two years at youth level," Ross enthuses.

Youth team captain Ross Darcy receives the South East Counties League Cup, from League Secretary and Treasurer Alan Leather.

Born in Balbriggan, County Dublin, he joined our Trainee staff in July, 1994, and was upgraded to full professional status last summer.

Ross continues: "Although it was great to turn professional at that time, it didn't make too much difference to me last season as I was still playing youth football.

"I hoped I would break into the Reserves at some stage last term, but unfortunately that didn't happen. I will certainly be looking to establish a regular place this season."

Ross scored once in 24 League outings and played eight Cup matches for our senior Youth team last term. He led that side to League Cup success but injury forced Ross, 18, out of that May final at half-time. The team went on to beat Oxford 2-1 and lift the trophy.

They also finished runners-up in the South East Counties League Division One.

Ross confirms: "I missed the last three matches with a torn hamstring, but managed to play the first half of the cup final. It was pleasing to win the League Cup, but it was really a consolation prize.

"We should have done better in the League, we were so close and just blew it in the last few games."

On the international front, Ross was a member of the Republic of Ireland squad that travelled to France and Luxembourg, just before the start of the season, for the Under-18 European Championships.

He was joined in that party by Spurs team-mates Simon Webb and Alan Mannix, and they were up against Stephen Clemence in the England squad. Italy and Spain completed their group.

• The Sidney Wale Challenge Cup is presented annually by Mrs Cynthia Wale, widow of our late President and Chairman, who took a great interest in youth football at White Hart Lane. The winner of the award is nominated by the Youth Team Manager.

Our Club Shield is believed to date from 1957 when the club celebrated its 75th anniversary. It was made to depict the environment of Tottenham Hotspur Football Club.

Bruce Castle, which is shown on the top left-hand side, is a 16th century building which currently houses the local history and archive collection of the London Borough of Haringey. On the right are the seven trees planted at Page Green by the seven sisters of Tottenham, thus is the district known as Seven Sisters.

The cockerel and ball first appeared in 1909 when a former player, one W. J. Scott, cast a copper centrepiece to perch on the new West Stand.

The two lions rampant are taken from the crest of the Northumberland family who feature heavily in the history of the local area. They lived at the Black House – later renamed Percy House – situated on the High Road opposite White Hart Lane.

It is probable that the Northumberland family hold the key to our being called Hotspur. Henry Percy, the first Earl of Northumberland, had a son Sir Henry Percy, whose deeds on the battlefields earned him the nickname 'Harry Hotspur'. According to the history books he was slain at Shrewsbury in 1403.

The schoolboys who first created Hotspur Cricket Club in 1880, from which the football club came two years later, no doubt looked upon this character as their hero and named the club after him.

In 1884, following two years of confusion between Hotspur Football Club and another named London Hotspur, the name Tottenham Hotspur Football and Athletic Club was adopted.

Our motto, 'Audere est Facere' is a Latin inscription, the literal translation meaning 'to dare is to do'. In other words, unless you try you will never achieve.

The current badge depicting the two lions plus cockerel and ball, incorporating our initials, was introduced in 1983 and updated in 1992, the latter version – excluding the lions – appears on the club kit.

The colours of our shield were further amended last year to ensure consistency with a darker blue background to match the badge. The castle and ball switched from yellow to brown and the trees were given greater definition with the club initials now black on a white backdrop as opposed to light blue.

Player of the Year

Teddy Sheringham was voted Spurs Members' 'Player of the Year' for 1995, and is pictured being presented with the trophy by Manager, Gerry Francis, at their annual dinner and dance in December.

Gerry McMahon was named 'Young Player of the Year' for 1994-95 by the Spurs Supporters' Club. He is pictured collecting his award from captain Gary Mabbutt at the ceremony in March.

The Supporters' Club also took the opportunity that evening to hand over the awards for the previous campaign.

Sheringham collected the BBC Television Match of the Day 'Goal of the Month' award for November, when his Premiership goal against Coventry City at Highfield Road was selected. He was also voted 'Man of the Match' for England, against Bulgaria in March, and is pictured after the match at Wembley.

Bill Nicholson celebrated 60 years at White Hart Lane during our home game versus Blackburn Rovers, in March. He is pictured being presented with a sterling silver plaque, by Chairman Alan Sugar, as a memento to commemorate the occasion.

Darren Anderton was the 1993-94 'Player of the Year' and Sol Campbell (pictured) 'Young Player of the Year'.

Jürgen Klinsmann received the 1994-95 'Player of the Year' trophy later that month, during Bayern Munich's UEFA Cup visit to Nottingham Forest.

The Club first moved to our present site in 1899 when it was a disused nursery owned by the brewers Charrington.

The local land was well known for its superb growing conditions and a landlord of the White Hart public house in the 1890s, one George Beckwith, had set up a nursery on the site behind his pub at 750 High Road.

The land was rented from the brewery and a pitch prepared by groundsman John Over. Mobile stands which had been used at the previous ground at Asplins Farm – next to the railway line at Northumberland Park — were set up on the new site giving cover to 2,500 spectators. The Club offices, previously at 808 High Road, were also housed at the new enclosure.

A 5,000 crowd saw the first game on Monday, September 4, when Notts County, then in Division One, were beaten 4-1 in a friendly. The receipts amounted to £115 18s. 3d. of which £57 17s. 9d. was paid to the visitors.

The following Saturday 11,000 turned up to see the first competitive fixture, a 1-0 win over Queens Park Rangers in the Southern League. The receipts for this match were £329 4s. 3d. A season ticket to the main stand cost 15s. for all home matches at the new ground.

Within five years the ground had a main stand seating 500, covered accommodation for some 12,000 and an overall capacity of 32,000. However, the terms of the lease restricted the Club's ambitions and in 1905 an offer of 5,000 £1 shares was made through the club handbook to contribute towards the £8,900 needed to acquire the freehold plus a further £2,600 for the land at the Edmonton end. A total of 2,000 shares were taken up and a huge bank built at the Paxton Road end, mirroring the Park Lane end developed a year earlier. This brought the capacity up to 40,000.

Having secured Football League status, plans were drawn up by football ground architect Archibald Leitch for a new main stand. Seating 5,300 with a paddock for over 6,000 in front, it was opened for the visit of Manchester United on September 11, 1909, our first home fixture in Division One. By the end of that season a copper cockerel and ball adorned the apex of the mock-Tudor gable. The whole of the East Stand was also covered in 1909 and enlarged two years later when the wooden terracing made way for concrete, increasing the ground holding to 50,000. By this time the ground was frequently being referred to as White Hart

Lane, previously it was recorded as the High Road ground or White Hart grounds.

The profits of our 1921 cup win were used to build a split level covered terrace at the Paxton Road end and two years later the Park Lane was similarly developed at a cost of over £3,000. Leitch was again involved in their design which increased the capacity to around 58,000 with room for 40,000 under cover.

The East Stand development was completed in 1934, costing £60,000, and it was again designed by Leitch. Officially opened for the visit of Aston Villa on September 22, it encompassed 5,100 seats and 18,700 terrace spaces increasing the ground capacity to nearly 80,000.

In 1921 the Club purchased the Red House at the front of the ground, which had been used as a restaurant and coffee house for many years, and converted it into the club office. However, it was not until 1937 that the Club's registered offices changed from the original 750 High Road to number 748.

When the pitch was renovated in 1952, remnants of the old nursery were found including a concrete water container, iron piping and greenhouse foundations.

A year later floodlights were introduced. Set on four corner poles they were upgraded in 1957 which necessitated the removal of the cockerel from the West Stand. It duly reappeared on the East Stand in December, 1958. Floodlight pylons appeared in 1961 when a new system was installed. A year later the rear of the Park Lane Stand was fitted with 2,600 seats.

In 1963 the Paxton Road Stand underwent a similar transformation with 3,500 seats installed and in 1968 was extended to link up with the West Stand, providing a further 1,400 seats.

Another new floodlight system was introduced in 1972 at a cost of £26,000. A year later the West and South stands were linked with an additional 700 seats. November, 1980, saw the old West Stand demolished and replaced 15 months later by the present structure, officially opened on February 6, 1982, for the match against Wolverhampton Wanderers.

The summer of 1989 saw the East Stand refurbished signalling the disappearance of the floodlight pylons to be replaced by spotlights on the East and West stands. The stand was re-opened on October 18 for the visit of Arsenal.

The summer of 1992 saw seats replace the lower terrace in both the East and South stands and the following year the Lower North Terrace was also converted to an all-seater area, with the roof of the North Stand built to link up with the East and West stands.

In 1994 the South Stand was demolished and seats were installed on The Shelf section of the East stand. Last year the new South stand was completed, incorporating the Jumbotron screen. Again, the East and West stand roofs were linked to give a wrap around effect throughout the stadium.

This summer the South Stand interior has been developed incorporating four new executive lounges and restaurants on the first, third and fourth levels, and the pitch reconstructed.

Our 47 competitive matches yielded a total of 119 goals, 71 for and 48 against.

A total of 59 goals were scored in the 23 games at White Hart Lane, 37 for and 22 against. The Members end witnessed 30 goals, 22 for and eight against, with 15 for and 14 against being registered at the Park Lane end. All but one of our last 14 home goals were scored at the Paxton Road end of the ground, including each of the last eight.

Sportshot

Our 53 League goals were again shared by just eight players (plus three own goals), equalling our shortest goalscorers listing of 1909–10, 1933–34, 1970–71 and 1994–95.

The quickest goal we conceded was notched by Ian Woan in the FA Cup tie at Nottingham Forest on February 28, timed at three minutes 36 seconds. Dani of West Ham United netted the fastest visiting goal at Tottenham on February 12 at four minutes 12 seconds.

An England Under-19, Youth and Schoolboy international, he made his senior debut at home to Arsenal in August, 1993, and went on to score five goals in 43 League and Cup matches for the club.

Republic of Ireland Under-21 defender Owen Coll left on a free-transfer for Bournemouth at the beginning of April. He originally joined us as an amateur in July, 1993, signing professional a year later. Owen had a loan spell with Yeovil Town in February, 1995, but failed to make it to our senior side.

Ilie Dumitrescu

Ilie Dumitrescu's move to West Ham United was finalised in March. He scored four goals in 18 League games, and one goal in two League Cup matches for us after joining from Steaua Bucharest in July, 1994. He was also loaned to Sevilla from December, 1994, to May, 1995.

Erik Thorstvedt, Kevin Watson, Gareth Knott and Robert Simpson were all given free-transfers at the end of the season.

Thorstvedt spent eight seasons at White Hart Lane and made 219 appearances in League and Cup competition. A Norwegian international goalkeeper, he signed from IFK Gothenburg in December, 1988, and made his debut the following month at home to Nottingham Forest. He was a member of our F.A.
